

Centennial Security Services

“PLEDGE OF ETHICS”

As an employee for Centennial Security Services, I pledge:

1. To accept private security responsibilities and obligations by protecting life and property; preventing and reducing crimes; upholding the law; and respecting the constitutional rights of all persons.
2. To conduct myself with honesty, integrity and respect for others and to adhere to the highest moral and ethical principles in the performance of my security duties.
3. To be faithful, diligent, and dependable in discharging my duties, and to uphold at all times the laws, policies, and procedures that protect the rights of others.
4. To observe the precepts of truth, accuracy and prudence, without allowing personal feelings, prejudices, animosities or friendships to influence my judgment.
5. To respect and protect all company, client or any other confidential and privileged information except in those instances contrary to law or to this Code of Ethics.
6. To cooperate with appropriate criminal justice and government agencies concerning matters within their purview.
7. To accept no gratuity, promise or other favor which would compromise my integrity.
8. To strive continually to improve my performance through training and educational opportunities to better prepare me for my duties.
9. To conduct myself professionally at all times and to perform my duties in a manner that reflects credit upon myself, my company, and the private security community.
10. To be prepared physically and mentally to perform those duties bestowed upon me and to be on time for all assignments.

I understand and agree to abide by all elements of the code as described above at all times while conducting security operations for Centennial Security Services.

Signed: _____ Date: _____